

CLINIC “TRAINING FOR COURAGE”

Natural Horsemanship with Paul Dufresne

Weekend Clinic February 23-24 at Windhorse Farm in Coldstream, B.C.

Clinic Content 2008

*Demystifying horse language

*Effective Communication

*Developing Self-sufficiency

 View exhibitions on video link on website: Quimerico and Paul Exhibitions**

- Building a foundation (ground play)-dealing with biting, kicking, trailering, tying, etc.
- Applying foundation preparation to various disciplines (halter, riding, driving, long reining, and classical) * Bending and releasing the poll
- Leadership while maintaining friendship (In the Way of the Horse)
- Modifying behavior with Natural Horsemanship and Operant Conditioning Techniques
- Training for Courage (equine and human: spook proofing, trail, jumping, roping)
- Training for lightness and impulsion, pressure without contact

“Pleasure as they all should” liberty, freestyle, dressage, jumping, eventing, cattle-penning
Circensic Dressage (circus type tricks and classical riding)

For all levels where owners’ relationships with their horses is of significant importance!

Website: www.pkequestrian.com

Email: skin2win@telus.net -Tracey

CLINIC LOCATION:

WINDHORSE FARM, 7366 Brewer Rd. W., Coldstream, B.C. (indoor cover-all arena)
Saturday & Sunday 9am-5pm (8 hours instruction per day)

Cost: $225 Early bird fee for both days (after Feb. 15-$250)

Horses must be up to date on vaccinations (for your horse's protection)

Lunch provided for pre-registered participants and auditors

$15/day stabling (bring your own feed)

$50 spectator auditing for the weekend-prepaid

$30 spectator drop in per day

Stallions and intact colts need to be pre-approved by Paul (safety first)

REGISTRATION

Cheques payable to: Tracey Skinner

Please mail to: 7910 Keddleston Rd., Vernon, B.C. V1B 3N4

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Horse Name: _____ Breed: _____ Age: ____ Sex: ____

Audit: _____

*Registered first paid first served basis.